Special Blessings™

Making a Gift in Trust for Birthdays and Other Special Occasions

How Will You Be Remembered?

Everyone wants to leave behind a non-material legacy – one that reflects the relationships we cherished, the impact we've had on others, and the truths and values by which we lived. That kind of legacy lives on in our children and in others whose lives we've touched.

Though most of us do our best to teach our children humanistic values, such as being kind and generous, especially to those less fortunate, there is no better way to instill values than to lead by example. It is never too early to begin.

That's the idea behind TRUG's Special Blessings program. It's a unique way to make a gift to a child, grandchild or other loved one on a special occasion, instilling some of your personal values at the same time.

Appropriate Special Occasions

Certain occasions are especially popular for an annual remembrance gifts. Among them:

- the birthday of a child, niece, nephew or grandchild
- the birth of a new baby
- a wedding, anniversary or engagement
- a confirmation or bar/bat mitzvah
- a graduation or other significant personal accomplishment
- special holidays

How It Works, In a Nutshell

You make a gift of $5,000 or more (in cash or securities) to a trust for TRUG, which invests the funds, with the understanding that, each year, for five years, an individual you name will receive fixed payments of at least $250, from the income. Usually, a child or grandchild is the individual receiving the income, but the recipient can be anyone at all.

Each year, the check arrives, enclosed in a special greeting card designed by a student from TRUG. In this way, your loved one gradually becomes acquainted with your philanthropic values, and learns that a portion of their special gift is helping to provide essential care for children and adults challenged by disabilities.

Tax Benefits

An added benefit of our Special Blessings program is the favorable tax treatment it receives. Since your gift will ultimately benefit charity, it qualifies for a substantial income tax deduction (at the time of this writing, it is approximately 77%). If you use appreciated securities that you have owned for more than a year to make your gift, you may also avoid capital gains taxes.

In addition, although your gift would provide a financial benefit to a loved one, it also reduces your taxable estate, and any associated estate tax liability.

How to Establish a Gift in Trust

Instructions for your attorney, along with a specimen trust document for his or her reference, have been enclosed with this brochure. Review all the materials with your attorney, who will then draft a trust agreement consistent with your requirements and our program. Mail an original, signed trust agreement, along with a check made payable to "RISE Life Services" to:

Charles Evdos

For an added tax benefit (avoidance of capital gains tax), your donation may also be made with marketable appreciated securities, or, for your convenience, through a major credit card.

For securities transfer instructions or additional information, contact RISE's Executive Office, at (631) 727-6200 or
